ABOUT SOLIDLINE MEDIA VIDEO PRODUCTION COMPANY

We're SolidLine Media, a client-focused High Definition corporate video production company. And based on our customer satisfaction level, we're pretty good at it. We're not like those other video production companies that say hello, hand you a video, and are on their way. We concentrate on the development of a relationship with our clients, creating powerful film and video productions that stay lasting in the minds of their viewers.

Our award winning staff has designed and created production work for companies like John Deere, DHL and Textron, and has experience in promotional video production and educational video production. Our productions for these companies have helped contribute to their long standing successes. We are specialists in providing the highest quality in High Definition digital video production that is specifically catered to your expected outcomes.

We do this using our exclusive I-Research, a procedure that has our staff immersing themselves into your business model in order to completely understand what makes you tick. The result is a production that is exactly what our clients set out to achieve.

But we're more than just HD corporate video production. We specialize in helping our clients reap the benefits of ever-changing technology. From 3d animation and motion graphics, to "live" television broadcasts, to commercial production, to web design, we can ensure that you get the full package of results under one award-winning roof.

“SolidLine continues to deliver great videos on time and on budget. These guys are good!”

-Rachel Diakides, Director of Marketing
DHL Global Forwarding

Our Telly-award winning staff of motion graphic artists and 3d animators will make sure that your high definition video production stays in the forefront of technology with the use of the latest in 3d animation and effects. From fully animated characters and products, such as those created for John Deere and Venta-Airwasher, to state of the art motion graphics and advanced 3d animation and titling, we'll make whatever you do as flashy as a major Hollywood production.

And although we are a Chicago video production company, we will bring all of these video production services to you, no matter where your business is located, and at no extra charge. It's just what we're known for. We will come to you, at no cost to you. Whether you're looking for the finest video production in Dallas, or can't find a good enough company for video production in New York, we'll be there. And there will be no worries about extra travel cost. We get it done, no questions asked.

This is just a sampling of what we do. It's just a small part of our "whatever it takes" attitude.

And don't worry about coming to us with a great idea and a small budget. At SolidLine Media, we'll figure out a way to get the results you want in the constraints of a tight budget.

Our staff not only specializes in high quality, attention getting results that exceed our clients' expectations, but they love doing it! The result is a corporate video production process that is just as rewarding as the results. The number one comment we receive from our clients is the pleasure they had picking up the phone and giving us a call. You never know what might happen! You might just break a smile while our team of professionals guides you through the developmental process from concept to reality.

So please, check out a more detailed explanation of our marketing video production and other services on the corresponding pages. And if you still don't believe us, take a click on our demo reel page and find out what Fortune 500 companies across the country are raving about. At SolidLine Media, we don't specialize in dreaming it, we specialize in being it.

SOLIDLINE VIDEO PRODUCTION SERVICES

CONCEPT DEVELOPMENT

SolidLine Media prides itself on not only offering the highest quality in production services, we offer all of our production services all in house. There is nothing more frustrating than a production company not fulfilling their obligation and blaming it on some other company - one you didn't hire! Our team handles all of your needs. It's just what we do.

SUBHEAD

Speaking of our services, we offer the latest and greatest in digital video production. We'll take our award-winning production team anywhere, anytime, at no extra cost to you. So whether you're looking for video production in Boston, or you've got a video production in Cincinnati and Colorado, we'll accommodate you. And best of all - no hidden bills, no secret charges. It's free, just one more thing we love to offer.

SUBHEAD

While we excel at the high-end corporate videos for various Fortune 500 companies across the country, we also offer our services to those operating on a much more limited budget. For example, many small business owners feel they won't be able to afford the quality video production and animation that their much larger competitors frequent. We know that every project has a budget, and we can make it work. By keeping all of our work under one roof, you won't have to worry about us inflating the price. We will even finance the project if you wish, without a penny of interest.

So please, view our demo reel and see our production services in action. Our customer satisfaction rating is 100%; you won't be disappointed. Or maybe just a little disappointed - that you didn't find us sooner.

THE 5 BEST COMMERCIALS OF SUPER BOWL XLIV

Friday, January 15th, 2010
Posted by Marcus Leshock

Like so many football fans across the world, SolidLine Media was glued to the action during Super Bowl XLIV. A big congratulations to the folks down in New Orleans we've worked with over the years, a much deserved NFL Championship is finally in your grasp.

Anyways, seeing that we put together commercials and advertisements for a living, we thought it would be fun to share our favorite Super Bowl commercials to air during last night's game. We ranked them based on entertainment value, but most important, how they met their client's needs and reinforced their branding message.

OK...too much blabbing. Lets get to the fun....
